City Dashboard

The City Dashboard below encompasses a multitude of data from our various departments and meant to give our citizens quick and transparent access to not only city financial statistics, but also crime stats, community stats, and much more...

While we aim to provide you with the most accurate data at all times, please note that some of the data contained within these dashboards is updated in real-time, while other sections may only be synced in once a month due to the data's availability.