Moving Permit

Structure shall not be removed from an existing foundation without first giving a surety bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, or giving a cash deposit of the same amount. The bond or cash deposit shall be conditioned upon the party removing such structure and causing the vacant lot to be filled and property leveled to comply with City Ordinance. The bond or cash deposit shall be returned after an inspection is made by the Building inspection Department for compliance. Failure to comply, the City may fill the vacant lot and the bond or cash deposit shall be forfeited to cover the City's costs.
